Textbook: Wilkie, William. Consumer Behavior. John Wiley. 1994 (This textbook is out of print, but it is still the best consumer behavior textbook. Dr. Anderson has scoured the Internet and obtained copies of this textbook from every vendor available on the Web. This textbook is required, but presently available only from Dr. Anderson. It will cost you each $35 for the textbook.

About the Course: The general course objective is to help you understand the nature of consumer behavior. Consumer behavior is an exciting and challenging subject...it is about people, marketing, and the consumer marketplace itself. Remember, "I listen, I forget. I see, I remember. I do, I understand." The purpose of this course is to create a dialogue among ourselves about the nature of consumer behavior. To allow this to happen, lectures will occur only occasionally.

On completion of this course, you should be able to:

- know consumer behavior foundations
- apply the tools to real-life situations
- analyze integration of all aspects of the planning processes of consumer behavior

Grading: 4 exams @ 100pts.....400 points

A = 92%+ A- = 90%+ B+ = 87%+ B = 82%+ B- = 80%+ C = 70%+

Assignments will not be assigned points. Poor quality/late/non-submission will subtract 5 points from total. Assignments are due on the dated noted at the beginning of the class period-late material will receive a 5 point reduction. Attendance roll will be taken.
